

Thread about photos of Gareth Evans etc at the May 25 hearings

@xenophondavis

May 28

We posted a picture yesterday of individuals appearing for the defence in the Bernard Collaery trial. We have been advised that media and others are not allowed to publish such material. Deleted. The darkness descends. The secret trial continues.

@BernardKeane

May 28

Who advised you of that?! Individuals providing affidavits, and appearing, for Collaery at the pre-trial hearing are Gareth Evans, Chris Barrie and John McCarthy. All are public figures. For @cporterwa, Paul Symon, Richard Maude and a Ms Cook have provided affidavits.

May 28

Replying to

@BernardKeane

And I'm all ears if anyone wants to advise me and Clinton Fernandes, who attended the relevant hearing last year, that it's not allowed to publish those names.

TSJForum

@TSJForum

May 28

Replying to @BernardKeane

and @cporterwa

Yes, we'd like to know who gave that advice too. It seems to be doing the rounds.

xenophondavis

@xenophondavis

May 28

Replying to

@BernardKeane

and @cporterwa

You are the only publication to mention it Bernard and we are grateful for it. Others seem nervous of it. What a time. More power to you.

@BernardKeane

May 28

I know our friend Mr Porter would prefer it if everyone pretended the trial, like the illegal bugging ordered by Howard and Downer to help Woodside, didn't exist.

michael

@fount8

May 28 Seems most 'journalists' are happy to humour him on this

Mary Kostakidis

@MaryKostakidis

May 28

They bank on intimidating you into self censorship. Hope that's all it is. Otherwise you will find out Bernard. Good on you. Extraordinary that en mass journalists can just turn away from this case.